The City of Montevallo and The Tinglewood Festival Committee invites you to participate in our wood festival that celebrates shavings, smoke and sound on Saturday, September 6, from 9:00 am until 5:00pm in Montevallo, Alabama. This unique celebration will be located in Orr Park along the wooded banks of Shoal Creek and Tinglewood Park. Tinglewood Festival consists of wood maker's booths and demonstrations, children's activities, musical groups and a classic car show. Food and refreshment vendors will be on site for the family event, which will take place rain or shine. The event is provided free to the public.

The event is inspired by the beautiful tree carvings by wood artist and Montevallo citizen, Tim Tingle. Other wood artisans have been invited to display and sell their wood products and art during the festival.
